Season's Hue

Neelam Dadhwal
Poet
Chandigarh, India.

Last circle was incomplete when the valley drifted between slope roads went far I plucked few flowers and flew birds in range raindrops soaked the pebbles carried reflections.
The grey sky moved dried leaves scattered beyond sight the only crunch song played on my mind the solitariness.
Smile there were memories when I bent to pick cinnamon and sun came rising when a peak covered a view and we travelled a whole distance to moon and stars.
