Waiting for You

Harshit Nigam
M. Phil (English),
University of Delhi.
Email: hnigam256@gmail.com.

You pour down so passionately
Electrifying each atom;
That farms and fields get tuned to dance,
The tavern lie stupor.
At times pitter patter,
At other times a heavy down pour.
Whenever you come down
You rekindle the aura.
Frog starts croaking for mate,
Paper boats get set for destinations.
You quench the thirsty earth
Releasing a misty fragrance out of mud.

The mighty ones curse;
You put halt onto their lives.
They may call me Luddite, Effeminate, Hedonist.
No qualms, I have.
Whitman and Gibran gave you a voice.
One more in the lineage I am.
As nothing could be manlier
Than to embellish and eulogize
The creation.

I'm waiting,
When the water pearls on window panes
Herald the rejuvenation.
I'm waiting,
For the seething Jalebis
Reviving the child in every man.
I'm waiting for you
To stimulate my poetry;
Amidst the scorching heat outside,
And the cold humdrum within.
