Man of Devaluation

Ujjal Mandal

Poet

Malda, West Bengal

A person of choleric nature is none other than a creature, Whose words are pugnacious can't be a conscientious,
A person with a recalcitrant attitude
May lose his ebullient mood,
One who is supercilious can't be fastidious.
So to be an ideal man from today onwards take the role of caravan To seek human values for which the sages are still searching its clues.
