Deep down inside the chambers of my heart
Stung the bees of words that darted at me straight
If words were flowers
I would have them all strung in my memories
Spoken words are bedlam, let loose
Stabbing into the soft innocence
Ripping apart its gentle vibrance
Yet the words hit me hard and strong
And so the agony did prolong
Memoralised deep within
Etched forever in the chasms of my heart!

At times there is this sweetness of the words
In a spellbinding euphonious tone!
Enrapturing the seamlessly untapped frailty
Nothings are at times sweet unspoken silences
Uttering zillion vinous thoughts
Unleashing the reins of reveries!

Passion and reason conflicting for days
Passion winning always

Taking all the pent up desires
Thoughts overriding with each spoken word
Senses in abject rapture to the luscious tone
Mark me as I melt away in the
Dreaminess of my world
Transported and charmed into
A farther faery kingdom of fancies
What sorcery is this?
Will I willfully succumb?
And will I be wretched and forlorn
Sulking and preposterous?

You either slay me or annoy me
Swept off completely but Never ready to give in
Dilemma would die
To see me in such a state.
I'm torn apart and confounded
Isn't this a methodical madness?
I run from it and know not why!
Love is toxic too
When its not approved!
So part today and meet again
In a distant future
In another realm
In another birth, my dear
If we both are destined to!
